

“Softie” - Samryebread . Lyrics

Don't listen close
I'm full of bad ideas.
I build the traps
That keep me stuck right here.

There's some things I can't explain so please don't make me
Cause every piece I've shared it has been used against me.

I'm cruisin' for a bruising'
I post my wounds to prove it
Let the whole world look in and laugh
Sayin' this the life you're choosin'
so

So so soft x2
Kiss me

Big signs "Beware"
You let me bite just the same
But if thoughts go dark
I'll be here wide awake.

There's some wiser characters that can replace me
But you've got a stubborn streak that won't erase me.

We're cruisin' for a bruising'
We left out all the rules and
Let everyone look in and laugh
Don't matter cause we're choosin'
so

So so soft x2
Kiss me
So so soft x2
Kiss me
